

NEWS RELEASE

Media Contact:

Felicia Rice
(831) 459-1554
fsrice@ucsc.edu

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 15, 2010

UCSC's Digital Arts and New Media 2010 MFA Exhibition, Things That Are Possible, showcases digital art with social impact at the NEW Digital Arts Research Center (DARC)

The Digital Arts and New Media MFA program at UC Santa Cruz presents an exhibition of fourteen graduate students whose works employ advanced technologies for creative potential and social impact.

Entitled Things That Are Possible, this year's UCSC DANM MFA exhibition is the culmination of two years of research and artistic exploration, and will include new media works that explore performativity, interactivity and participation. These works interrogate the borderlands, edges, and contested territories of contemporary new media art practice.

Exhibition Dates: April 30 – May 9

Reception: Friday May 7, 5:30 – 7:30PM

Gallery Hours: 10AM – 4PM

Location: The NEW Digital Arts Research Center (DARC) located off Meyer Drive near the Music Recital Hall and Theater Arts on West Campus.

SAVE THE DATE: Exhibition preview on April 29 during the opening celebration for the DARC.

The Digital Arts and New Media MFA Program serves as a center for the development and study of digital media and the cultures they have helped create. Faculty and students are drawn from a variety of backgrounds such as the arts, computer engineering, humanities, the sciences, and social sciences to pursue interdisciplinary artistic and scholarly research and production, in the context of a broad examination of digital arts and cultures.

For more information see: http://danm.ucsc.edu/news\_events/2010-mfa-exhibition

